

FREEDOM

Now We Can Stand

As we see New Zealand dodge the bullet this time round and move to Alert Level 1, we get to open up our Club and welcome back guests, visitors, children and those members of clubs we have reciprocal rights with.

Those that prefer to stand while drinking can do so. No limit on the number of persons at a table. The pool table and dart boards reopen for use. The yellow tape disappears, the gaming room will be in full operation, indoor bowls are available.

Now we can get back on with our social events so keep an eye out for some special events that had been put on hold, details to come. Sanitiser will remain available at various locations around the Club for all to use. As will electronic contact tracing for those using the government app, when we receive our QR code.

If you wish to go watch the Blues, with possibly Dan Carter in the line-up, versus Hurricanes on Sunday at Eden Park you are able to do so or you could watch in the comfort of the Club enjoying some $5 hospitality.

First Women President, Now Life Member

Emmie Swart joined the Club in 2008 under the then "Partnership membership" available at the time. Transferring to a full play member when that category of membership was opened up to women during the Presidency of the late Rod Mahon. That same year Swart became the first woman to serve on the Executive, in 2011 Secretary & Senior Vice President, 2012-2014 Vice President and then briefly in 2015 the first woman President. As the Constitution was changed Swart moved from President to become the first Chairperson of the Birkenhead Bowling Club. A position held until 2017 when Swart stepped back from the Board of Management. The step back was only to last one year as she was co-opted back on in the position of Chairperson for the following three years guiding the Board. Swart didn't stand for the Board at AGM 2020, but with none of the elected Board eager to take on the role of Chairperson the Board again looked outside itself and as result has co-opted Swart on for another term in the Chairperson's position. During Swart's time at the Club to date she co-founded the Good Home Birkenhead Women's Pairs, initially the Slipp Inn Birkenhead Women's Pairs, marquee event on the Club's calendar and show casing talent from around our region and afar. Swart initially assisted Rod with the bowls shop when the shop started. She then took over the running from him for the next eight years. She has run all the corporates for the last six years raising much needed, additional funds over that period.

Emmie Swart was made a Life Member at AGM 2020. The first women to granted this status in the Club.

Been on the social committee and at the forefront of organising such events as the Mermaids, The House Band, New Year's Eve Party with live thirteen piece band, Quiz Nights, Blues nights, 75th Jubilee Black Tie Dinner and many more. Obtaining her Bar Managers License to help the Club. Instrumental in working towards and gaining for the Club in April 2015 BOWLSNZ ClubCheck Gold Award (the first club in North Harbour to achieve the Gold Award). Was working towards gaining the Platinum Award, the ClubCheck Award scheme has now been put on hold by BOWLSNZ. Rejuvenated the Club's Opening Days into the occasion it should be, with New Zealand sporting quest speakers Mahe Drysdale, Ruben Wiki, Hamish Carter, Barbara Kendal, Peter Montgomery, Mark Greatbatch, America's Cup Chief Umpire Harold Bennett and New Zealand adventurer and Everest summiteer Mike Allsop. Swart has been successful in raising in excess of $700,000 in grant money for various projects benefiting the Club. With two-thirds of the vote required, the maths was easy as the vote to grant Swart life membership was unanimous. Emotions got the better of Swart as she re-entered the meeting to a standing ovation, an award justly deserved for outstanding service to the Club.

Watkins, Winton...

Birkenhead's AGM 2020 was held last Sunday. Chairperson Emmie Swart and President John Croy both didn't stand.

Joseph Korkis and Randall Watkins went head to head for the President's position. Watkins came away with the vote and Korkis dropped into the Vice President's position. Standing unopposed, Terry Moverley returns for a seventh term as Secretary, while Elaine Utting QSM also returns for a second term in the position of Treasurer.

Both Watkins and Korkis had their bases covered also applying for Board positions. Upon making President and Vice President respectively both withdrew their board applications leaving the five remaining applicants secured positions on the Board unopposed. Incumbents Keith Burgess, Jimmy Heath, Evan Thomas and Merv Garred all returning and making up the five was Tommy Winton making his return to the Board after a year off.

The Board of Management has co-opted Emmie Swart back onto the Board and into the position of Chairperson, effective from the Board meeting held immediately after the AGM for a term until the closing of the AGM 2021. Swart was not looking at returning to the Board but the events of Covid-19 and at the request by the Board, Swart has agree to guide the Board for a further twelve months. Upon the announcement that Swart would return as Chairperson she did request members consider putting their names forward next year, as new blood is needed to keep the Board invigorated.
