Allan Meekings Memorial - This Sunday 1 October
The first club tile of the season! Entry Now

Jerry and Adele Make Last Sixteen

Last weekend saw Bowls North Harbour's Ivan Kostanich Memorial Premier Singles played over two days. Jerry Belcher was the only Birkenhead player waving the Birkenhead flag to progress to post section play and beating Brown's Bays Richard Kimber in the first game late on Saturday to progressed to the last sixteen on Sunday. Up against Carlton Cornwell's Graham Skelton on Sunday, Belcher went down in the tie breaker, a great effort with many fancied bowlers having already been eliminated. The tile was claimed by Mangere's Nick Thompson beating Mairangi's Colin Rogan 7/4 - 10/6 in the final.

Over the bridge Auckland Bowls Women's Premier Open Singles were taking place. Birkenhead's much favoured Trish Croot unfortunately was forced to withdraw prior to Saturday having sustained an injury during the week. Of the Birkenhead ladies playing section play on Saturday Adele Ineson made the last sixteen on Sunday but bowed out (18-19) in a time limited game to Te Atatu Peninsula's Paris Baker.

Baker went on to beat Kensington's Maree Attwood 21-11 in the quarters, St Heliers's Sheila Putu 21-7 in the semis and before moving on to beat Papakua's Natarsha Grimshaw in the final, 21-17. An impressive effort from someone with under five years' experience and still at school.

Changes to BPL's Titleholder & Runner-up Teams

From www.bowls.com.au published on Monday, 25 September 2017

Changes are in-store for the Bowls Premier League's two most successful teams. The reigning titleholders and second-place finishers of last February's $100,000 BPL League competition have both announced changes to their team lists ahead of November's BPL06.

The dual defending champions, the BCiB Sydney Lions, have been forced to make a change to their contingent, after Australian Selectors entrusted star Ben Twist with international duties at the simultaneously staged Hong Kong International Bowls Classic.

Taking Twist's place in the Lions' den is newly-capped Australian Jackaroo and up-and-coming ace Corey Wedlock, who was instrumental in Australia's gold medal men's triples result at the 2017 Gold Coast Multi-Nations event last June.

The remaining Lions' pride remains unchanged, with four-time International Bowler of the Year Aron Sherriff and Commonwealth Games gold medallist Karen Murphy in the playing guernseys, alongside National Coach Steve Glasson OAM in the Coach's chair.

Last year's runners-up, and BPL03's winning team, the New Zealand Blackjacks have also confirmed a positional change, with a big-name star and favourite son set to return in an effort to go one step further this November.

The man who solidified the title for the Kiwis with a spectacular final delivery in BP03, world champion Ali Forsyth, has returned to the fold after missing last February's event. He will reunite with world singles champion Shannon McIlroy and international stalwart Jo Edwards, with New Zealand National Coach Sharon Sims calling the shots.

Continuing the theme, the Club Helensvale Gold Coast Hawks have also made one change to their roster, in an attempt to claim a maiden title.

Australian Jackaroos Captain Lynsey Clarke has re-joined the Hawks' nest after missing the last event in New Zealand due to logistical complications, and will replace Kelsey Cottrell who took up her spot in the eleventh hour.

Alongside Clarke is recently announced Hall of Fame inductee Mark Casey and world pairs champion Brett Wilkie, with Australian Open singles runner-up Nathan Rice in the coach's seat.

"Our club and members are very excited to be involved in another BPL this year," Clarke said about the event.

"We love being able to cheer on our Hawks in this prestigious event; our supporters are always the loudest and most colourful.

"Our line-up contains three of Australia's greats, all world champions, and all having played many years alongside each other in the Hawks colours.

I believe the compatibility and skill of our team will make us one of the toughest sides to beat in this impressive field – this is our year."

The Bowls Premier League will light up Brisbane's Club Pine Rivers from November 14 to 17, with 20 hours of live Fox Sports coverage across the four days of competition.
