Men Only Singles this Weekend

By Gary Stevens
We need you this weekend for the club's singles champs - Men only (see below) and before you say "No way!" think about the number of times (as a lead or two) you've complained about your good bowl not counting because it's "knocked off". Singles is a draw game and you get the last (and the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd) bowl. Come and try yourself. Can you test the best and beat the rest. You'll never know until you try. Men's Singles Championships. Entries Close: This Thursday, 26 January 2017 @ 5.00pm. Names on the sheet in the Clubrooms. Playing Dates: This Saturday, 28 January 2017 and Sunday, 29 January 2017 (if you qualify)
Markers are also required, there is a board up in the club for names of those that are available to mark on Saturday.
Please note - There are just 4 entries in the Women's Singles Champs with some members away. This Championship has been deferred to a later date

BNH Singles & Triples

Bowls North Harbour Men's Centre Singles and Women's Centre Triples got under way last Saturday with Tony Grantham and Lisa Helmling's team the only Birkenhead entries to make it through to post section on the Sunday in their respective events. With the storm barreling through Auckland Saturday night and into the small hours Sundays post section play was postponed to Saturday 11 February (Centre reserve day).

Taranaki

Birkenhead's Ruth Lynch and Carole Fredrick accompanied by Browns Bay's Rona Turner and Shona Chambers (skip) headed off to New Plymouth Monday in search of their third Taranaki Women's Open Fours title, having upset the locals in 2004 and 2009. Lynch and Fredrick were not alone in the trek south. Denise Samuel's Birkenhead side including Lisa Helmling, Trish Croot and Mairangi's Colleen Rice, and past Birkenhead member Gayle Melrose's team with Browns Bay's Ann Dorreen also made the trek down chasing the same goal, to be crowned the 65th Taranaki Women's Open Fours Champions.

Play got underway yesterday with Chambers recording 2 wins, Samuel 1 win and Melrose 2 wins. The teams require four wins from six games (25 end games, 2 games per day) to reach the knockout stage of the tournament which commences on Friday. Check out the club's facebook page (Birkenhead Bowling Club) for regular updates .

BPL05 is Nearing

Birkenhead hosts the current BPL champions, the Sydney Lions featuring Australia's most capped international bowler Karen Murphy, four-time International Bowler of the Year Aron Sherriff and Australian Jackaroo Ben Twist. Calling the shots will be Australian National Coach Steve Glasson OAM who recently guided his Australian contingent to a record breaking haul at the 2016 World Championships in Christchurch.

Saturday 26 February evening visit by the Sydney Lions players and supporters. Sydney Lions coach Steve Glasson will answer questions you have around the Lions, BPL05 and also this own stunning bowling career. There will be food put on and all members are encouraged to come and meet the team and show your support.

Sunday 27 February the club will be centre stage in the evening as the venue for the, invitation only, opening of BPL05.

The club has a corporate table for all four evenings of the completion and some Lions shirts up for grabs, details of which we will announce soon.
