Murphy On Her Way

Birkenhead Bowling Club has great pleasure confirming current dual world singles champion and Australian Jackaroo Karen Murphy will be running her Bowls Clinic at Birkenhead Bowling Club on Thursday 13 and Friday 14 February 2020. Details of the Clinics and application forms will be available from Birkenhead Bowling Club, its website and from Bowls North Harbour's website soon.

Karen will also be competing in the $6,500 "The Good Home Birkenhead" Women's Pairs over the weekend of Saturday 15 and Sunday 16 February. Karen will partner up with one of the attendees of her Bowls Clinic. A great experience and opportunity for one lucky bowler to play with the world's best. Birkenhead Bowling Club would like to thank Bowls North Harbour's Bias Fund for their assistance in making Karen's visit possible.

Karen Murphy will be at Birkenhead Bowling Club in February 2020 to run her Bowls Clinic and compete in the $6,500 "The Good Home Birkenhead" Women's Pairs.

Only three women have held the world singles championship title back to back, Elsie Wilkie (New Zealand) 1973 & 1977, Margaret Johnston (Ireland) 2000 & 2004, Karen (Australia) 2012 & 2016

Didn't Return Empty-handed

There were high hopes of claiming the Executive Fours this year after coming runners-up a couple of years back. The team with Jimmy "Jandals" Heath off the front, the every steady Evan Thomas covering at two, after all it was bonus fours and those bonus points are all important. President John Croy hovering in the threes position and Randall Watkins skipping the team out of any trouble if required. Four games were all that stood in Birkenhead's way to glory. After the Bowls North Harbour Centre official opening it was into it, but first up a narrow loss (5-7), not a good start. The second game and Birkenhead handed out an old fashion thrashing to the Centre Executive team (22-0). After lunch and two more wins (7-6 and 22-2), but the loss in the morning had hurt them. Browns Bay took the honours with four wins and Birkenhead was left in fourth place pondering what could have been. The lads didn't return empty-handed, they brought back the new 2019-20 Centre handbooks, which are now available from the Club.

McSweeney Cleans Up

Saturday and the first Stinger 200 Club Arvo for the season got underway at 1pm. A small field assembled but competing against an All Black test was always going to be a big ask. Round one saw both Dennis McSweeney's and Mick Moodie's triples win through to play each other for the afternoon's top prize. A twelve to six win to McSweeney's triple saw Dennis McSweeney, Gary Wallace and Alex Abela claim the cash.

The Stinger jackpot sitting at $200 and only one team with a positive differential, a plus twenty. A one in thirty chance of winning the $200, pretty good odds in the Club's favour and if not stuck it would jackpot to next week, but low and behold the number twenty appeared in lights. Not only had McSweeney's triple got cash for winning the afternoon they had also won a further $200 which they share with the team they played in the last game, which happened to be Moodie's triple.

For your chance of some cash join in the next Stinger 200 Club Arvo this Saturday 14 September.

Names In by 12.45pm for a 1pm start. Entry $5, Dress is mufti. Due to the structure of the competition entry is on first-come bases.
